

Developing a parent partnership through regular, effective communication

Developing communication skills through Project CORE, symbols or written or verbal communication

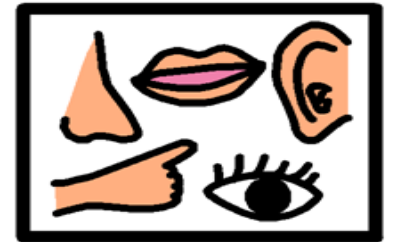

Building independence and life skills

Child centred approach with personalised targets

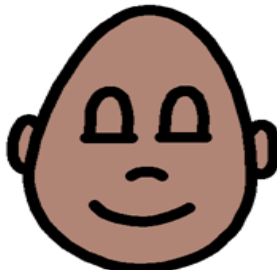

Sparrows Class Ethos

Lots of opportunities for creative learning for a fun, motivating and stimulating environment

Clear and consistent rules and routines

Stress free and calm environment

TEACCH

Using a TEACCH approach to respond to our children's needs