FISH

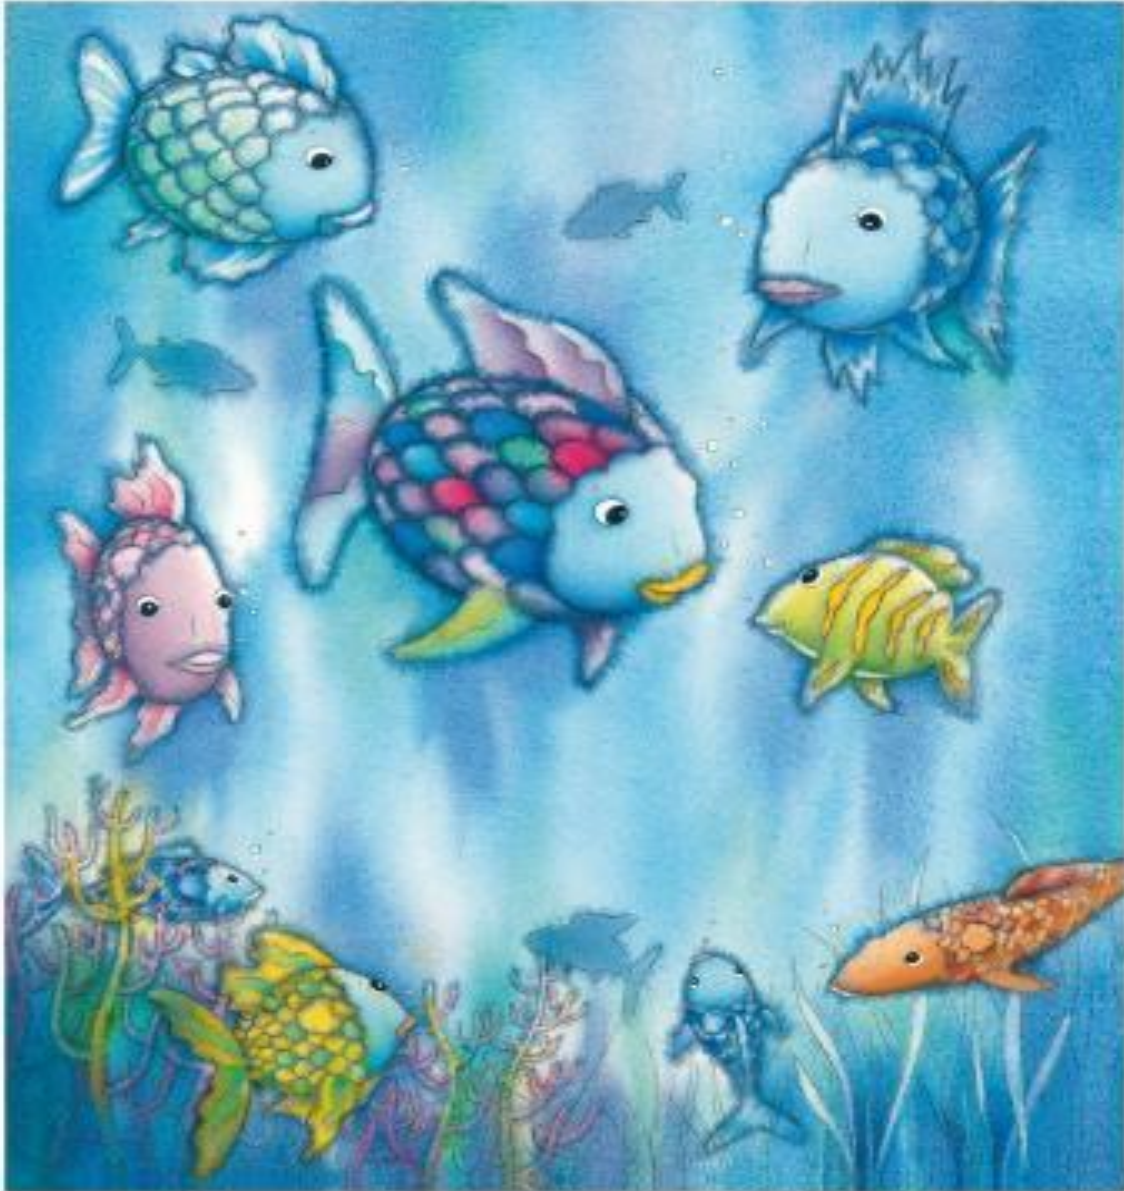

Open primary hand moves forward while making repeated small twisting movements at wrist.

Far out in the sea lived a fish. No ordinary fish, however.

He was the most beautiful fish in the entire ocean.

His scales shimmered with all the colours of the rainbow.

The other fish admired his colourful scales and called him the Rainbow Fish.

"Come on, play with us, Rainbow Fish!" But Rainbow Fish was proud and swam past them.

BLUE

Flat primary hand makes small circles in upturned wrist of secondary hand.

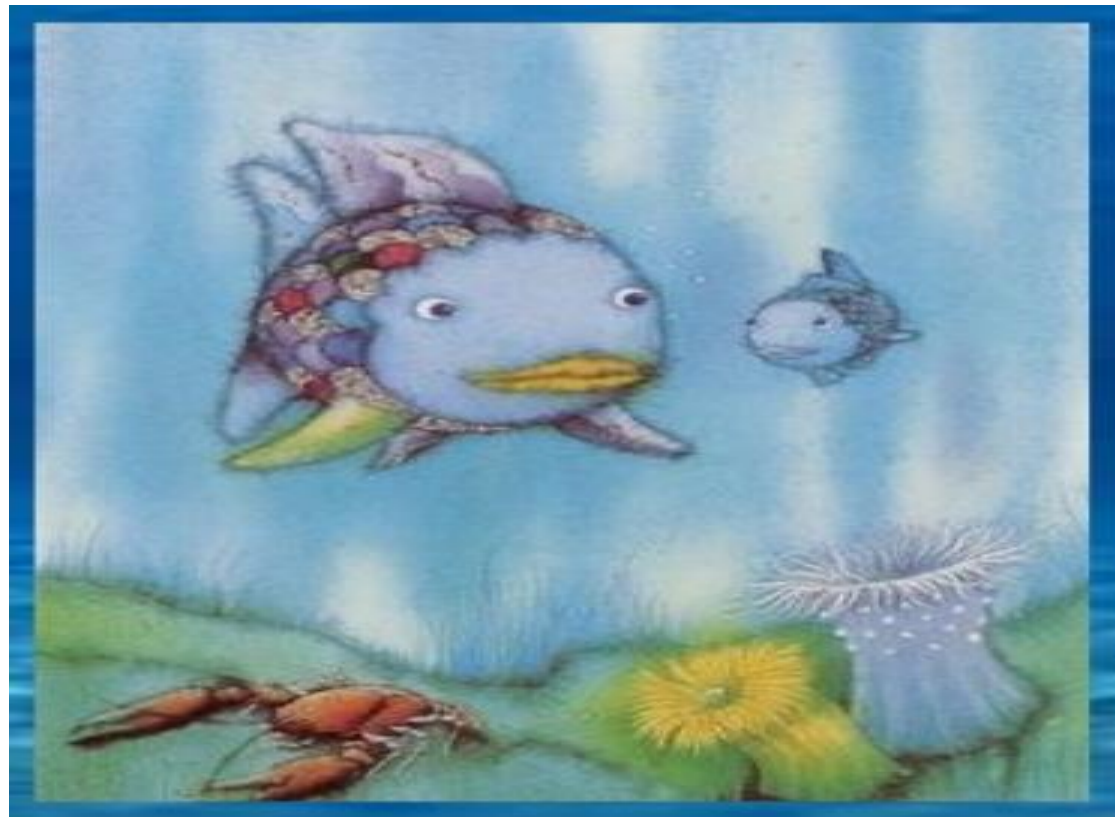

FISH

Open primary hand moves forward while making repeated small twisting movements at wrist.

A little blue fish swam along behind him. "Rainbow Fish, wait for me! Please give me one of your glittering scales. They are so beautiful and you have so many!"

"Give you one of my scales? What are you thinking off?". Cried Rainbow Fish. "Get away from me!"

Shocked, the little blue fish swam away. He was so upset; he told all of his friends what had happened. From then on, no one would have anything to do with the Rainbow Fish. They turned away when he swam by.

What good were the dazzling, shimmering scales with no one to admire them? Now he was the loneliest fish in the entire ocean.

One day he poured out his troubles to the starfish. "I really and beautiful. Why doesn't anybody like me?"

"I can answer that for you," said the starfish. "But if you go beyond the coral reef to a deep cave you will find the wise octopus. Maybe she can help you."

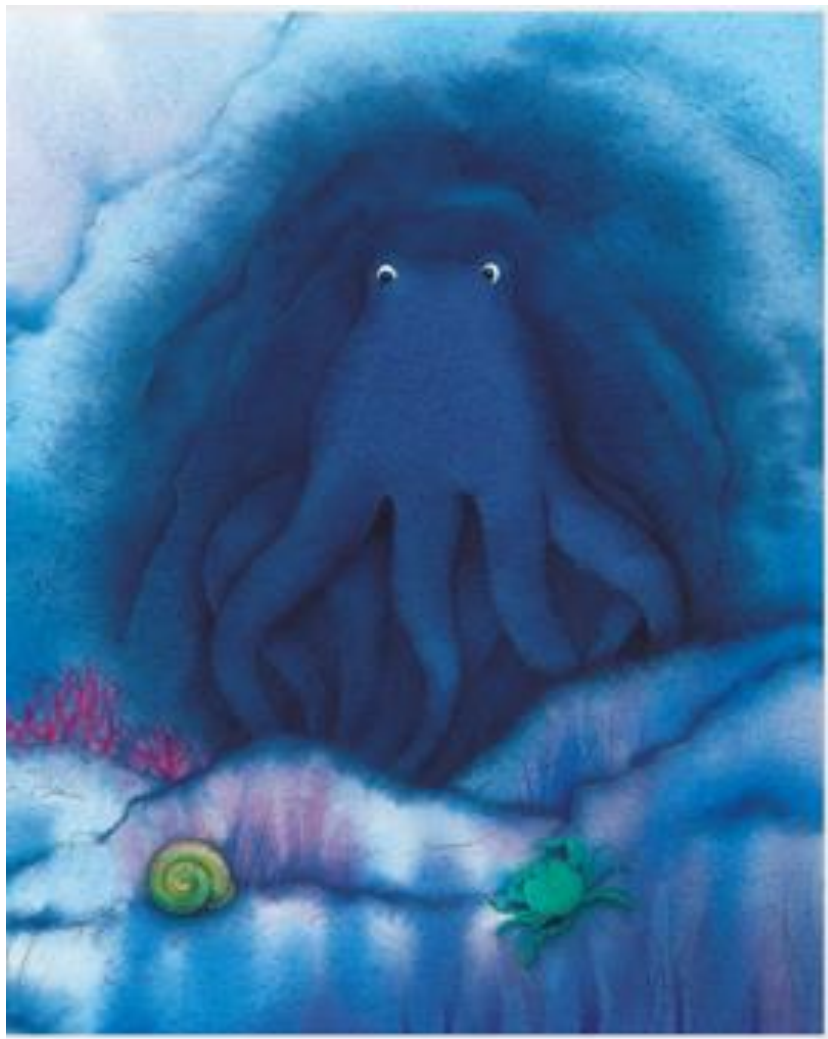

Activity:

For the next part of the story you could get a cover or blanket and place it on top of your head. Now you can pretend your in a cave

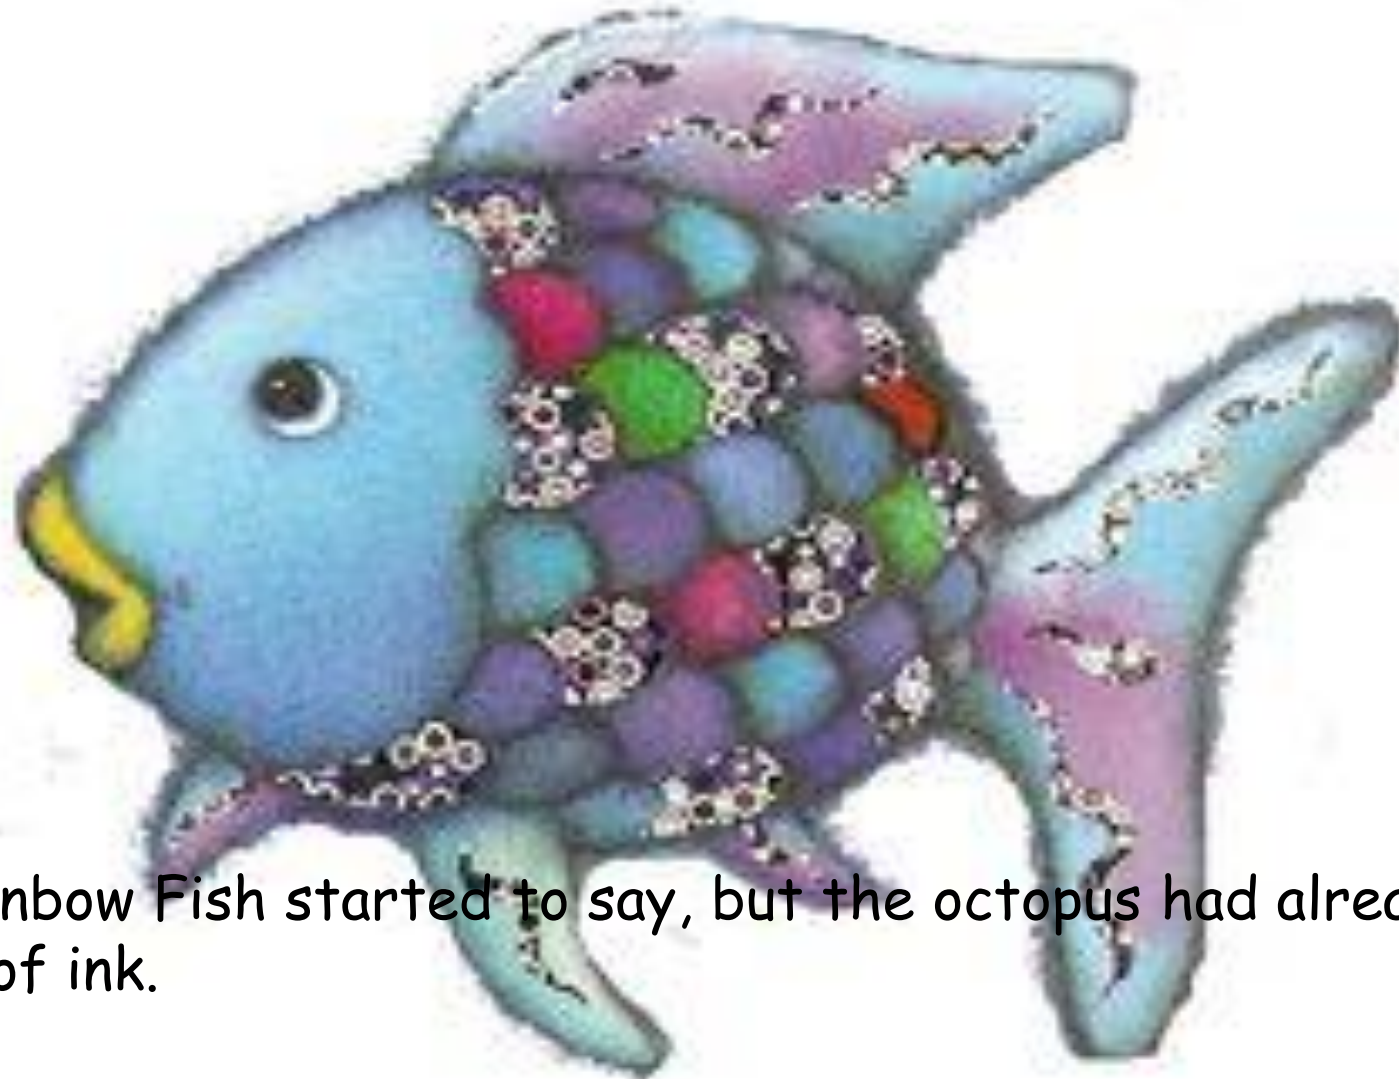

The Rainbow Fish founded the cave. It was very dark inside and he couldn't see anything. Then suddenly two eyes caught him in their glare and the octopus emerged from the darkness.

" I have been waiting for you," said the octopus with a deep voice. "The waves told me your story. This is my advice, give a glittering scale to each other fish. You no longer be the most beautiful fish in the sea, but you will discover how to be happy."

"I cant..." the Rainbow Fish started to say, but the octopus had already disappeared into a dark cloud of ink.

Give away my scales? My beautiful shinning scales? Never. How could I ever be happy without them?

FISH

Open primary hand moves forward while making repeated small twisting movements at wrist.

Suddenly he felt the light touching a fin. The little blue fish was back!

"Rainbow Fish, please don't be angry I just want one little scale."

The Rainbow Fish wavered. Only one only one very very small shimmery scale, he thought. Well maybe I wouldn't miss just one.

Carefully the Rainbow Fish pulled out the smallest scale and gave it to the little fish. "Thank you very much!" The little blue fish bubbled playfully, as he tucked the shiny scale in among his blue one.

A rather peculiar feeling came over the Rainbow Fish. For a long time he watched the little blue fish swim back and forth with his new scale glittering in the water.

The little blue fish whizzed through the ocean with his scale flashing, so it didn't take long before the Rainbow Fish was surrounded by the other fish. The Rainbow fish shared his scales left and right. And the more he gave away, the more delighted he became. When the water around him filled with glimmering scales, he at last felt at home among the other fish.

HAPPY

Both hands open. Palm of dominant hand taps palm of non-dominant hand twice.

Finally the Rainbow Fish had only one shining scale left. His most prized possessions had been given away, yet he was very happy.

"Come on Rainbow Fish," they called. "Come and play with us!"

"Here I come," said the Rainbow Fish and happy as a splash, he swam off to join his friends.
